CHAPTER 6 - GENERAL EXCEPTIONS

1. Due Observance

The due observance of and compliance with the terms, provisions, warranties and conditions of this Policy insofar as they relate to anything to be done or complied with by the Insured shall be a condition precedent to any liability of the Company under this Policy.

2. Reasonable Care

The Insured shall:

- take all reasonable steps to safeguard the Insured Vehicle against any insured event.
- take all reasonable steps to prevent a claim from arising under this Policy.

3. Duties and Obligations after Occurrence of an Insured Event

Unless specifically provided for elsewhere in the Policy, it is a condition precedent to the Company's liability under this Policy that, upon the happening of any event giving rise to or likely to give rise to a claim under this Policy:

- the Insured shall immediately and in any event within 3 days give written notice of the same to the address shown in the Schedule for this purpose, and in case of notification of an event likely to give rise to a claim to specify the grounds for such belief, and
- the Insured shall not abandon the Insured Vehicle nor take any steps to rectify/remedy the damage before the same has been approved by the Company or any of its representatives and appointees, and
- the Insured shall within 7 days deliver to the Company its completed claim form detailing the loss or damage that has occurred and an estimate of the quantum of any claim along with all documentation required to support and substantiate the amount sought from the Company, and

- the Insured shall expeditiously provide the Company and its representatives and appointees with all the information, assistance, records and documentation that they might reasonably require, and
- the Insured shall allow the Company and its representatives and appointees to inspect the Insured Vehicle or any other material items, as per 'the Right to Inspect' Clause.

4. Right to Inspect

If required by the Company, its representatives and appointees, including a loss assessor or a surveyor appointed in that behalf, shall in case of any loss or any circumstances that have given rise to a claim under the Policy be permitted at all reasonable times to examine into the circumstances of such loss. The Insured shall, on being required so to do by the Company, produce all books of accounts, receipts, documents relating to or containing entries relating to the loss or such circumstance in his possession and furnish copies of or extracts from them as may be required by the Company so far as they relate to such claims or will in any way assist the Company to ascertain in the correctness thereof or the liability of the Company under the Policy. In the event of an admissible claim, the insurer has the discretion of repairing or replacing any parts found to be defective with complete assembly or child parts wherever available.

5. Contribution

In case there is more than one insurance policy issued to the insured covering the same risk, the insurer will not apply contribution clause. Underinsurance will be applied on an overall basis taking into consideration the sum insured under all policies and comparing it with the value at risk.

6. Subrogation

The Insured and any claimant under this Policy shall at the expense of the Company do or concur in doing or permit to be done all such acts and things that may be necessary or reasonably required by the Company for the purpose of enforcing any civil or criminal rights and remedies or obtaining relief or indemnity from other parties to which the Company shall be or would become entitled or subrogated upon the Company paying for or making good any loss or damage under this Policy whether such acts and things shall be or become necessary or required before or after the Insured's indemnification by the Company.

7. Fraud

If the Insured or any claimant under this Policy shall make or advance any claim knowing the same to be established as fraudulent as regards amount or otherwise, this Policy shall be void and all claims or payments hereunder shall be forfeited.

8. Substitution

This Policy does not permit any substitution of vehicle.

9. Cancellation

The policyholder can cancel the policy at any time during the term, by informing the insurer. In case the Policyholder cancels the policy, he/ she is not required to give reasons for cancellation. In such case of cancellation, the insurer will refund full premium before risk start date.

In case the policyholder cancels the policy after inception of risk start date, the Company shall:

- refund proportion premium for unexpired policy period, if the term of the policy is upto one year and there is no claim(s) made during the policy period.
- refund premium for the unexpired policy period, in respect of policy with the term more than one year and the risk coverage for such policy years has not commenced.
